- My dependents are not eligible for coverages I don't have. My dependents, including step and foster children and any over the maximum age, are eligible based on plan provisions but those over the maximum age will be verified when a claim is filed.
- If I refuse dental coverage, I and my dependents may enroll later but this will affect the level of benefits.
- If I refuse coverage, I cannot enroll after retirement.
- If I refuse life or disability coverage, I may apply later but I must show proof of good health and coverage will be subject to approval by Principal Life Insurance Company.
- If the group policy does not require my contribution, I cannot decline coverage unless the policy indicates otherwise.

- If the group policy requires my contribution, I authorize my employer to deduct from my pay.

I agree Principal Life is not liable for a claim before the effective date of coverage and all policy provisions apply. I have read, or had read to me, the information and my answers on this form. During the first two years coverage is in force, fraud or intentional misrepresentations can cause changes in my coverage, including cancellation back to the effective date.
- Any person who, with intent to defraud or knowing that he or she is facilitating a fraud against an insurer, submits an application or files a claim containing a false or deceptive statement is guilty of insurance fraud.
- Explanation of Benefits reflecting claims payments for myself and my dependents will be sent to my home address. I also understand collection of social security numbers for myself and/or my dependents will be used by Principal Life only as allowed by law.

- For life coverage, I understand that as the employee, the insurance I and my dependents have applied for will begin on the effective date of coverage provided I am at work on that date. If I am not actively at work on such date, subject to the terms of the group policy, coverage may not go into effect until after my return to work. Furthermore, I understand that no insurance may become effective for any member of my family while he/she is in a period of limited activity.
